

The Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal Bin Abdulaziz Alsaud Center for American Stud- ies and Research (CASAR)

Director:

McGreevy, Patrick V.

CASAR aims to promote dialogue about issues in American studies through teaching, research, and outreach. The center offers graduate assistantships and faculty grants to support research related to American studies, particularly in the area of American encounters with the Middle East. It also sponsors conferences, seminars, and public lectures.
