The Civilization Sequence Program (CVSP) at the American University of Beirut is a unique, interdisciplinary space for critical inquiry into ideas that inform civilization.

The mission of the Civilization Sequence Program is to provide undergraduate courses in the humanities that support the American University of Beirut's goals in general education and the advancement of knowledge. CVSP is committed to engaging students from all the faculties of the University in the study of primary texts. The three major goals of the program are to develop critical skills and creative, flexible thinking; to promote an awareness of different civilizations; and to uphold dialogue as an essential skill of life.

Summary

In order to complete their CVSP requirement, students must take two CVSP courses, one from Sequence I and one from Sequence II. The course chosen from sequence I is pre-requisite to the course chosen from sequence II. Students in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences may complete the other humanities requirement with any two courses from the approved list of courses above, either from CVSP or from other humanities departments.

Requirements

- Since the critical skills built into the Sequence I courses significantly help the student succeed in Sequence II, students are required to take a Sequence I course before taking a Sequence II course.
- It is recommended that students take a Sequence I course in their sophomore year, and a Sequence II course in their junior or senior year.
- Students must have sophomore status or above to take a Sequence I course, and junior status or above to take a Sequence II course. The two courses may not be taken simultaneously.

Restrictions

- CVSP 205 overlaps with 201 and 202. Thus, CVSP 205 cannot be taken if the student has taken either 201 or 202, and vice versa.
- CVSP 206 overlaps with 203 and 204. Thus, CVSP 206 cannot be taken if the student has taken either 203 or 204, and vice versa.

The above restrictions do not apply to CVSP 207 and 208, as they do not overlap with any other core courses (201-206).

Prerequisites

- ENGL 102 or its equivalent is a prerequisite for all CVSP courses 200 and above.
- Freshman students who have not completed two semesters may not enroll in CVSP courses numbered 201–208. They will not receive credit for these courses. For all other CVSP courses numbered 200 and above, freshman students may enroll only with prior consent of the instructor.
